By Paige West FROM MODERN PRODUCTION TO IMAGINED PRIMITIVE: The Social ... Coffee was introduced into Papua New Guinea (PNG) in the 1950s and is now that country's second most important agricultural export. West uses coffee growing in PNG to analyze the circulation of coffee in the world and the images of the coffee in the context of neo-liberalization to show, in her own words, "how various forms of value, labor and politics emerge along coffee's circulatory ... From Modern Production to Imagined Primitive In this vivid ethnography, Paige West tracks coffee as it moves from producers in Papua New Guinea to consumers around the world. She illuminates the social lives of the people who produce coffee, and those who process, distribute, market, and consume it. From Modern Production to Imagined Primitive: The Social ...
